

Monticello Special City Council Meeting – Closed Session

January 30, 2016 9:00 a.m.

ROLL CALL: Present: Wendall Brock, Larry Stoner, Joe Brown, John Miller, Cochran Keating, Lyle Murdock, Seth Melton, Tom Reed (arrived at 10:00am)
Also present: Maura Metcalf, Dave Anderson

Mayor Stoner apprised the council of the rules of the interview process. Each Alderman was instructed to ask the same question to each candidate, and to complete the evaluation after each to discuss at the end of the day. The Stakeholders were in a separate room and had a separate list of questions to ask the candidates.

The candidates interviewed were:

9:00 Robert Mahrt

10:30 Kevin Baity

The council recessed for lunch from 11:50 a.m. to 12:25 p.m.

12:30 Austin Edmondson

2:00 Jim Snider

Each candidate was interviewed for approximately one hour and asked the same questions. After the interviews were complete the Aldermen and Mayor discussed the candidates to determine what the consensus was. The Mayor invited the stakeholders in to the meeting to provide their input on the candidates. The Alderman agreed to have a closed session meeting after the next regularly scheduled council meeting to determine which candidate to move forward with.

A motion was made by Alderman Hayes and seconded by Alderman Keating to end closed session.

A motion was made by Alderman Hayes and seconded by Alderman Melton to adjourn the meeting at 3:30 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted by,

Maura Metcalf
Deputy City Clerk
